To Our Friends and Customers.

We regret to announce to our friends and customers that on the morning of Feb. 4th, 1900, our stock of Clothing, Hats and Furnishings was almost entirely destroyed by fire and water, and our building badly damaged, which will unavoidably cause a suspension of our business for a short time.

Contracts have been made and the workmen are rebuilding our store, which will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible, and we hope to be able to reopen on or about April 1st, at our old stand, with an entire new and beautiful stock of Clothing and Gents' Furnishings.

All the stock saved from the fire has been sold to Mr. Jacob Goldstein of Danville, Va., and Mr J. Rosengarter, of Raleigh, N C.

We feel grateful to all our friends and customers for their very liberal patronage in the past, and hope by fair dealing and a strict attention to business to merit a continuance of same.

We would thank all parties indebted to us to call and settle same, as we are anxious to balance our books. Also request all parties having accounts against us to present same. Our office is at present No. 106 South Davie street, two (2) doors north of C. P. Vanstory's Livery Stables, in the McAdoo House building.

Very Respectfully,

C. M. VANSTORY & CO.

LINING UP ON PORTO RICAN BILL.

Democrats Solid in the Opposition And the Bill May Fail.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, Feb. 23—Saturday evening the republicans in the house will hold a conference upon the Porto Rican bill. The outlook is not favorable for the passage of the measure, though it is possible that a motion to recommit to the committee on ways and means might carry if supported by the democratic side of the house. The democratic members are almost solidly opposed to the passage of the pending bill, and with the exception of perhaps one or two members on that side the vote will be unanimous. Representatives Sparkman and Davis, whose state is much interested in the Porto Rican tariff bill, perhaps with the single exception of Louisiana, more so than any other southern state, owing to the vast interest in oranges and fruits, may after all vote against the passage of the bill. The Florida members are at least faltering in their determination to vote for the bill.

They are opposed to free trade between this country and Porto Rico, which would, it is claimed, injure the business of their state, but as the house democracy is so solidly opposed to the pending bill, they may sink personal and state opinion, and vote with their own party, which course, it is said by Florida people in Washington would be commended by their constituents Representative Davey, of Louisiana is also in doubt, and it is said that his vote will probably be cast with the republicans on this measure, as his district is largely interested in Poto Rican trade. The only member counted as a democrat whose vote is sure to be cast with the republicans on this measure, is Sibley, of Pennsylvania, who on several occasions this session has "kicked over the traces" until he is now egarded by his own party as a republican.

On the republican side it is hard to predict the defection on this bill, as the party whip is being wielded in a vigorous manner. A large number of republicans who would not, it is believed dare face their constituents by voting with the democrats in the opposition, will vote to recommit. The outlook is that if the motion to recommit is lost, by the democrats voting against it, that the measure will be defeated outright, but the vote may be closer than has been anticipated. The democrats from North Carolina are against the bill, while Kinney, and White, are for the pending bill. The Virginia delegation are all opposed

Hon. Josephus Daniels, of North Carolina, member of the democratic national committee, is in the city, attending the meeting of that committee, which convened yesterday morning at the Raleigh Hotel. Mr. Daniels is hopeful regarding the political outlook in the state, and he has no doubt but the proposed constitutional amendment will be carried at the August election by a large majority.

D. Baxter Henderson and wife, of Charlotte, N. C., were in the city on Washington's birthday, stopping at the Metropolitan Hotel. Mr. Henderson was in the city on personal business.

Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Shannon, of Henderson, N. C., are at the Ehritt House for a few days.

To Subscribers.

The Telegram management will be glad if subscribers will report to the office if they, for any cause, fail to get their papers.

Child Killed at Colfax.

The little three year old child of Mr. Henry Long, of Colfax, was accidently killed yesterday afternoon. The child was playing near the well, which was being cleaned out by workmen, when a heavy piece of timber fell on its head The skull was fractured and the unfortunate little sufferer died in about an hour.

Special Sale

for tomorrow—Saturday—there will be on sale 36 styles in boys' knee pant suits. Age 11 years.

Rankin, Chisholm, Stroud & Rees say that they have all the other sizes but in order to make a run on these goods they have decided to offer one size in all the different styles at prices that make you ask—how can you do it? Read their ad on front page.

Cleansing by Fire.

Considering the different varieties of diseases that have existed from time to time in that dilapidated structure, which for the sake of the name, is called a jail, would it not be well to destroy forever any germs that might fondly cling to their home. sweet (?) home? Could any destruction be any more complete than that by fire? In other words, burn it up. The fire department would hardly object to being on hand to prevent any other damage.

Settling With the Ex-Sheriff.

For the past four days the county commissioners have been engaged in settling with Ex-Sheriff Joseph A. Hoskins, completing the work last night The collections and disbursements for the years 1897 and 1898 were gone over and the accounts audited.

Since his term of office expired the ex-sheriff has succeeded in collecting a considerable amount of back taxes.

"You admit that you have never had any stage experience," said the manager of the Flybenight Theatrical Company, "and yet you seek a position. Pray, what are your qualifications?" The applicant drew himself up proudly. "Sir," he replied, "I have frequently indulged in six day walking matches, and can go without food for thirty-six hours." He got the job.

FIGHTING LIKE A BULLDOG,

ONLY ONE RESULT CAN COME

London, Feb 23—The latest reports from Paardeberg says that Cronje is still fighting with bulldog tenacity, against odds amounting to three to one. His laager is now wholly girded by British artillery and troops. The second edition of the Daily News says that Cronje has surrendered, but this is officially denied.

Military men think Cronje will never surrender, but will fight to the bitter end The details of the six days battle at Paardeberg shows that the Boers fought at the fearful odds of three to one, and that the fire of the British guns was concentrated on one spot about mile square. The exploding shells raised great clouds of smoke, and the shells searched every burgh and ravine. Estimates of killed and wounded reach 1,000. The execution was terrible and the roar deafening. But one outcome of the battle seems possible Cronje and his brave men seem doomed.

Country Schools Closed.

It is said that the compulsory vaccination order recently passed by the county commissioners resulted in the closing of about one-third of the public schools of the county. An unreasonable prejudice against vaccination exists among country people, and rather than submit to it they will take their children from school. They evidently believe sore arms are to be dreaded more than ignorance.

The order was repealed by the commissioners this week and most of the schools are expected to resume work at once.

Phœnix-Like From the Ashes.

One who has not been in the Benbow House from time time and seen the improvement that has been going on, will be most agreeably surprised when it is thrown open to the public Money and labor have wrought wonderful change in transforming the blackened, unsightly ruins of the fire into an attractive up-to-date hotel. In the waiting room, formerly Kaufman's store, there is some fine hand painted work on the ceiling. The hotel will have a passenger elevator, a convenience without which no modern hotel is complete. Hughes, the white barber of Wins on, will have the barber shop. A German will be chief cook. An abundance of bath tubs in the hotel will also add to the comfort of and cleanliness of the guests unwashed Altogether we predict for the Benbow a liberal and deserved patronage.

The Duke for Governor

There is talk here among republicans to the effect that Hon. Richmond Pearson wants to be nominated for governor this year. Though the house committee has just decided his contest against Crawford in the contestee's favor, some of the boys say that Pearson is afraid to ever try a race in the 9th again, hence his willingness to take the gubernatorial nomination. It is also said that Geo. Smathers and J. M Moody are inclined to cast coquettish glances at the nomination.

TWO DEATHS AT HIGH POINT.

Mrs. Thos. C. Barker and Mr. George Dillon are the Victims.

Correspondence of the Telegram

High Point, N. C., February 23—Mrs. J. F. Hoffmann is visiting relatives in Augusta, Georgia.

Charles Ragan of the Eagle Furniture Company, has gone north on business.

The remains of Mr. George Dillon, who died in this city of pneumonia, were taken to Winston yesterday for interment. The deceased was an employe of the High Point Machine Works, and as a matters, of respect to their late fellow laborer, the shops were closed down yesterday morning.

After an illness of several weeks, Mrs. Thomas C. Barker, aged 41 years, died at her home in this city yesterday. Deceased was a daughter of our townsman, Dr. J. W. Burton.

Messrs. J. L. Seohrest, John W. Johnson, State Councillor A B. Horney and Rev. W R. Roach, representatives of the Junior Order United American Mechanics of this place, returned last night from Durham, where they attended the ninth session of the state council. They report a good meeting, a nice time and a record-breaker in the way of attendance. Representative W. H. Roach introduced a resolution "That North Carolina Shall Have Compulsory Education" The vote in favor of the same was unanimous. The question will be laid before the legislature next term. All honor to our brother in V. L. T in arousing the sentiments of this noble body in behalf of such an important measure.

W. V. Rush came up from Jamestown last night

D B. Crary, of Asheboro, was here last night.

Hon. Charles H. Mebane, superintendent of public instruction, was with the school here yesterday and made two interesting talks. In the afternoon he addressed the children at the school building and at night spoke to the public in the opera house. His visit was enjoyed by all. Both of his talks on education were full of sound truth and were listened to with much interest. Mr. Mebane expressed himself as being much pleased with the work being done here in the educational line.

Superintendent Mebane Here.

Hon. C. H. Mebane, state superintendent of public instruction, is in the city to attend the meeting of the program committee of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly. He spent yesterday in the public schools of High Point, where he addressed the people last night

Today he is at the State Normal and Industrial College. He addressed the students at the opening exercises this morning, and expressed his great satisfaction at the large number of students present, and his admiration of their spirit of loyalty to their college.

Mr. Mebane's speech was full of encouragement and wholesome advice, and was well received. He is ex-officio president of the board of directors, and his visit at the college today is somewhat in the nature of an official visit.

A Case of Trust.

London Tit-Bits.

Mrs. Blinkers—What! Going away? Why?

Servant—Yes, mum; when I came yesterday you gave me the keys to your trunks, and drawers, and chests, and jewel boxes to keep for you.

Mrs. Blinkers—Yes; I did that to show that I trusted you. What is the matter?

Servant—There don't a one of 'em fit.

Carnegie's Brand of Philanthropy.

Kansas City Times.

When trust captains fall out then honest men get a glimpse of the facts. Mr. Frick's denunciation of Mr. Carnegie and the steel combine's methods should open the eyes of even the most confiding dupe of plutocratic republicanism Talk about ten per cent. a month parasites; they are philanthropists by comparison with the Homestead brand.

No Signs of Withdrawing.

Ladysmith, Feb. 22—Bombardment today has been more active than usual with no signs of Boers withdrawing.

"After doctors failed to cure me of pneumonia I used One Minute Cough Cure and three bottles of it cured me. It is also the best remedy on earth for whooping cough. It cured my grandchildren of the worst cases," writes Jno. Berry, Loganton, Pa. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Cures coughs, colds, croup and throat and lung troubles It prevents consumption. Children always like it. Mothers endorse it. Howard Gardner.

KANSAS CITY, JULY FOURTH

TOWN TOOK THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION IN A WALK

Washington, Feb. 22—The national democratic convention will be held at Kansas City, Mo., July 4th. This was the decision of the democratic national committee which met at the Hotel Raleigh today to fix the time and place of holding the convention. Milwaukee was the only other city which competed for the honor of entertaing the convention, and the poor showing she made when the vote was taken (the result being Kansas City 40, Milwaukee 9), caused general surprise. The claims of the rival cities as to hotel accommodations, railroad and telegraph facilities were presented in open session by representatives of each city, and subsequently in executive session, ex-Governor Stone, on behalf of Kansas City, and National Committeeman E. C. Wall, on behalf of Milwaukee, explained the financial inducements which the city represented was willing to make. Each offered the committee $50,000, but in addition Kansas City was willing to furnish hotel accommodations for the member of the committee and the hall with decorations and music free of expense to the committee.

One of Milwaukee's strongest arguments was the political effect which the holding of the convention in that city would have upon the German-American voters, who were represented to the committe as wavering in their allegiance to the republican party. It seemed to be taken for granted by at least two speakers that Bryan would be renominated and that the Chicago platform in substance would be re-affirmed. Opposition to trusts, expansion and imperialism, together with every mention of Bryan and the Chicago platform aroused enthusiasm but during the open session of the committee there was no illusion to the issue of free silver. Three dates for holding the the convention were proposed, May 9th, by Mr. Townsend, of Oregon; June 14th, by Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, and July 4th, by Mr. McGraw, of West Virginia. A speech by ex-Senator Gorman in favor of holding to precedent and naming a date later than that for the convention of the party in power had considerable influence in causing Independence Day to be chosen.

After the committee had selected the "Gate City" of the West, the Kansas City boomers held a jollification meeting in their rooms at the Raleigh. Ex-Governor Stone addressed the gathering, predicting that those who attended the convention would depart with praise upon their lips for the hospitality they had received and that the nominee of the convention would be the victor at the polls in November.

ENDOWMENT RANK.

Carolina Pythian.

Attention is particularly called to the following summary of business of the insurance branch of the Order for the term ending December 31st, 1899. In this statement is clearly shown the splendid condition of this great and growing system of Pythian insurance provided for our members, a system that is today without a peer in all the field of fraternal insurance. Here is what the secretary of the Board of Control has to say:

The new business obtained during the closing quarter of the year 1899 shows a decided improvement over the preceding quarter, while the year's results evidence that in the march of progress the endowment rank has kept pace with the best of fraternal institutions.

During the quarter new sections numbering one hundred and seventeen were organized, distributed throughout thirty-four states and the province of Ontario.

Thirty one hundred and seven members were admitted and four million three hundred and fifty-one thousand dollars endowment issued—an increase over the preceding quarter of forty-two sections, six hundred and sixty four members and seven hundred eighty-eight thousand dollars endowment.

The death claims adjusted during this period number one hundred and fifty-nine, amounting to three hundred and eight thousand eight hundred and sixty-two dollars which was paid in full.

The work accomplished during the past year shows most gratifying results. Three hundred and sixty-nine sections and eleven thousand and thirty-four members were added to the roll The certificates issued to this membership aggregate fifteen million seven hundred and seventeen thousand five hundred dollars.

Comparing this work with that obtained during the year 1898, an increase is shown of twenty-six hundred and fourteen members, and three million six hundred and seventy six thousand dollars endowment.

One million two hundred and two thousand dollars was disbursed during the year 1899 to the dependents of five hundred and eighty-nine deceased members

The beginning of the current year shows thirty-nine hundred sections in operation, a membership of sixty thousand three hundred and nine, and the endowment in force one hundred and eight million ninety-eight thousand and five hundred dollars.

The investments and case on hand aggregate four hundred and eighty-eight thousand four hundred and fifty-seven dollars and sixty-nine cents, and the total amount paid for death claims fourteen million two hundred and twenty-six thousand and seventy-seven dollars and sixty-eight cents.

While the labors of the past year have been most fruitful, the results fully meet our expectations, the Board believes that a united effort on the part of the membership of the rank, its officers and organizers will show the work of the year 1900 to have exceeded all records of the past.

Paradoxical as it may seem, the things that live longest in history are the things that never happened. For instance, there's the lie that George Washington didn't tell.

A MAN AND A MILLION.

Some months ago there died in Massachusetts a man whom the papers have said very little about, and of whom the public has said less, and knows next to nothing. He could have been called wealthy in a city where wealthy men abound. His money could be enumerated only by the use seven figures. He spent large sums of it in quiet charity that the world never heard of; he wasted nothing in dissipated living. He helped wherever help was needed; a man out of employment with a dependent family found him a ready friend; the widow in need was never passed unnoticed by him; the young man struggling for an education or success in any field of business found in him a sympathetic heart and a helping hand; no child appealed to him in vain. He was the owner of a great business enterprise, itself a benediction to the country, the name of which is known in nearly every home in America, and yet his name never appeared in connection with it, and until his death not one tenth of the people who were familiar with his handiwork ever knew that such a man was connected with it. And even as we write we cannot for the life of us recall the name of this man we are writing of, but we know this, that he as a boy, earned his bread at a printer's case, and we know further that he became the man described above.

"The Youth's Companion," that delightful periodical, charming alike to youth and age, the weekly messenger, for over half a century, at the firesides of this land, laden with stories of noble young life and activity, filled with the wisdom of sages so attractively presented as to mould the boyish heart and mind—who does not know it? The man we have spoken of alone for fifty years owned this paper, he was its maker and builder, and yet no issue of it ever carried to its readers the name of its maker and owner. Worth a million, yes, and all made in publishing a newspaper that has been an inspiration and a joy to millions of people. Can a man make a million honestly?

Brethren, it is not how much a man can make, but how he makes it and what he does with it.

DR. PEARSON.

Of the noted evangelist, Dr. R. G. Pearson, who has recently closed a very powerful meeting in Charlotte, the Presbyterian Standard says:

Dr. Pearson is not a sensationalist. He is not an evangelist "with a past." He has been to this community before. He preaches the old gospel of faith and repentance, to savemen for heaven and from hell. He declares the great doctrines of God's Word. Yet the large auditoriums, first of the Second, and then of the First Presbyterian church, with galleries and annexes, were not able to hold the people who wanted to come. Beyond all the results, which we mention elsewhere, the meeting was a demonstration that the Gospel in its simple dignity and purity, without high-pressure methods of clap-trap performances, is the power of God unto salvation.

We have never believed in the gutter as a specially valuable preparatory course for the ministry, but we do not deny that men who have been very wicked often reform and become very useful as ministers. But we do protest against the idea which seems to be in the mind of the general public, that such a course of wickedness is a high recommendation. The clear, knife-like logic of Paul, reasoning on eternal things, appealed to the heart and head, not to the emotions. The avenue of the gutter is often the gateway to the ministry for men who at heart and by training are blackguards, and who, instead of becoming worthy to breathe the better atmosphere of their high calling, polute and contaminate it with their foul breath.

DIVORCE IN ENGLISH COURTS.

One of the growing questions of the times in the United States is the subject of divorce. Various states have different laws, from those of South Carolina where a couple almost may get married by standing up in public and looking cross-eyed at each other, but where all the machinery of the court is powerless to unmarry, to those states which have become, like Colorado, by reason of their easy divorce laws, the resort of every class of people from all over the Union who become mutually distasteful and want to try other partners. If this country had a less horror for "anglophobia" it might gather up some valuable lessons from England on this subject. We notice a writer in the Washington Post saying this:

In view of the number of so-called international marriages which turn out unhappily, I would recommend to the attention of the people on this side of the Atlantic the decision just given by the court of divorce in England in the case brought by ex-Lieut. Andrew, of the Black Watch, against his wife, Maud Richardson, formerly of the Gayety Theater. Mr. Andrew furnished abundant and conclusive evidence as to the misconduct of his wife in England during his absence in Africa with Mr. Henry Cavendish. But in spite of this the court refused to grant him a divorce, taking the ground that by wilfully separating, without lawful excuse, from his wife he had conduced to her misconduct. The English courts, it must be remembered, invariably decline to sever matrimonial bonds when there is any evidence of collusion between the petitioner and respondent, with a view to the dissolution of the marital ties, or when it can be shown that the petitioner had either connived at or condoned the offence of the respondent. From henceforth, by virtue of the decision just issued by Sir Francis Jeune, husband and wife who part from each other without lawful excuse, that is to say without having secured a legal separation, will be unable to obtain a divorce, no matter how flagrant and incontrovertible the subsequent mis conduct may be of either one or the other.

The growing frequency of divorce in the North Carolina courts is perhaps not taken much notice of now, but it is fast on the increase, and by and by will attract attention enough. The courts are thronged with divorce cases, in which people without social or other prominence in their communities are dissolving the marriage vows on frivolous excuses, or for put-up reasons. In a recent session of a small county court eight divorce cases were tried in one day, the parties separated, and nobody paid any attention to it. Doubtless inside of a week many of these people were again married to new choices. Nobody thinks of the matter now because persons now seeking divorces belong to the bottom social strata. Wait till the trouble arises a little higher in the scale; then the noise will go abroad.

The bill for the government of Porto Rico is now the most important measure, we are told before congress. It is unquestionably so, since the third crime against silver has been accomplished by making gold only legal tender money.—Salisbury Truth-Index.

By the way, what was the second crime? We have overlooked that.

SALT RHEUM CURED BY Johnston's Sarsaparilla

QUART BOTTLES.

JUST SEEN IN TIME.

Slight Skin Eruptions are a Warning of Something More Serious to Come. The Only Safe Way is to Heed the Warning. Johnston's Sarsaparilla is the Most Powerful Blood Purifier Known.

Nature, in her efforts to correct mistakes, which mistakes have come from careless living, or it may be from ancestors, shoots out pimples, blotches and other imperfections on the skin, as a warning that more serious troubles (perhaps tumors, cancers, erysipelas or pulmonary diseases) are certain to follow if you neglect to heed the warning and correct the mistakes.

Many a lingering, painful disease and many an early death has been avoided simply because these notes of warning have been heeded and the blood kept pure by a right use of JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA.

Miss Abbie J. Rande, of Marshall, Mich., writes:

"I was cured of a bad humor after suffering with it for five years. The doctors and my friends said it was salt rheum. It came out on my head, neck and ears, and then on my whole body. I was perfectly raw with it. What I suffered during those five years, is no use telling. Nobody would believe me if I did. I tried every medicine that was advertised to cure it. I spent money enough to buy a house. I heard JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA highly praised. I tried a bottle of it. I began to improve right away, and when I had finished the third bottle I was completely cured. I have never had a touch of it since. I never got any thing to do me the least good till I tried JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA. I would heartily advise all who are suffering from humors or skin disease of any kind to try it at once. I had also a good deal of stomach trouble, and was run down and miserable, but JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA made me all right."

The blood is your life and if you keep it pure and strong you can positively resist disease or face contagion fearlessly. JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA never fails. It is for sale by all druggists, in full quart bottles at only one dollar each.

HEMMED IN BY THE BRITISH.

Seems No Escape for Cronje and His 8,000 Men.

SURRENDER OR FIGHT TO DEATH

Kitchener Gives him Only Alternate, Which He Accepts, and Will Fight it Out.

Associated Press to Charlotte Observer.

London, Feb. 23, 4 a. m.—General Cronje is seemingly making his last stand. He is dying hard, hemmed in, and shells from 60 guns falling into his camp. On the third day of the fight the Boer chief asked for an armistice to bury his dead. "Fight to a finish or surrender unconditionally," was Lord Kitchiner's reply. General Cronje immediate sent back word that his request had been misunderstood and that his determination then, as before, was to fight to the death. The battle went on. This was the situation of General Cronje on Tuesday evening, as sketched in the telegrams that have emerged from the semi-silence of South Africa. Officially Lord Roberts wires that he has scattered the advance commandoes of the re-enforcements that were striving to reach Cronje. It is regarded as singular that Lord Roberts, wiring on Wednesday, did not mention the appeal for armistice on the previous day and also that the war office should withhold good news, if it has any. Without trying to reconcile even the scanty materials at hand, it seems plain that General Cronje is in it bad, and even a desperate situation, and that the British are pressing their advance.

While the attack on Cronje proceeds there is a race for concentration between the Boers and the British. The engagement with General Cronje's five to eight thousand entrenched men is likely to become an incident in a battle between the masses. The separate faction of the Boer power are rapidly drawing together to attack Lord Roberts.

Will General Cronje be able to hold out until the Boer Masses appear, of if he does, will they then be able to succor him? The British are facing the Boers on ground where the arms tactics and training of the British are expected to give them the advantage.

General Buller, according to a dispatch from Chieveley, dated Wednesday, finds the Boers in positions north of the Tugela, largely re-enforced. This seems strange.

The war office, for the first time, has given out an official compilation of the British losses. The total is 11,208 to February 17. This does not include, therefore, Lord Roberts' recent losses, nor the Wiltshires' prisoners.

The press association learns that the British losses at Koodoosrand were 700.

Three thousand fresh troops will embark for South Africa today. The relative positions of the combatants is likened to chess-players, one of whom from time to time adds pieces to the board, while any loss to the adversary is irreplacable.

All critics of afternoon papers urge rushing re-enforcements to Lord Roberts, so that he may be able to risk much in endeavoring to inflict a decisive defeat before the Boer forces, gathering from every quarter, strengthen General Cronje's threatened force. The relief of Ladysmith is now taken to be a matter of course, and is likely to be announced before the end of the week, but it is quite within the probabilities that severe fighting will occur previous to the relief, while the detachments to be sent by General Buller to re-enforce Lord Roberts, subsequent to the relief, are likely to meet with strenuous resistance in the passes of the Drakensberg, in which fairly powerful burgher forces remain. Boer reports says that General Joubert's nerves are unstrung and that he no longer exercises the chief command.

A dispatch from Stekespruit, dated Wednesday, February 21st, says: "The prominent rebels in this district intend to surrender and the Stormberg rebels will shortly lay down their arms."

There have been many eulogistic references to the speech of Laurier and other Canadians in South Africa, concerning which, curiously enough, there is not a single word, official or otherwise, known or published here, except that two officers were wounded.

Great relief has been caused here by the receipt of the news from Paardeburg, showing that Lord Roberts is personally superintending the operations, and though it is difficult to grasp the real situation, it is generally thought that Lord Roberts is gradually tightening his grip on General Cronje's forces. In spite of the apparent failure of Sunday's attempt to storm the Boer position, it is evident that General Cronje is not merely laagered in the ordinray sense of the word, but occupies a carefully prepared and strongly entrenched position, previously made ready, with the object of stemming the prospective British invasion of the Free State. After failing to dislodge General Cronje, and in spite of the great bloodshed on both sides, Lord Roberts seems to have contented himself with shelling the Boers Monday and Tuesday. He had apparently contemplated a renewal of the assault Tuesday afternoon.

Re-enforcements of guns and men are also reaching Lord Roberts, and it is not thought that the Transvaal and Free State railroads will be able to transport herriedly the great number of men and horses.

From the available information received here, it appears that Lord Roberts completely surrounds General Cronje with artillery, thus releasing the other guns, of which, military experts assert, he has plenty to defeat all reenforcements of the Boers as they arrive in detail. The fact that General Cronje asked for an armistice points great losses, as well as indicating that he recognized that his hope lies in securing delay in order to allow Boer reenforcements to create a diversion in Lord Roberts' rear.

The Daily News has the following dispatch from Modder River, dated Wednesday, February 21:

"The Boer forces, under General Cronje, are estimated at 8,000 men. At 12 o'clock he asked for an armistice for 24 hours, which was refused. Later he sent a messenger to say that he would surrender.

"The British general sent a reply, teeling him to come into camp. Cronje refused, saying that there had been a misunderstanding and that he would fight to the death. The bombardment was then resumed and our lyddite shells set fire to the Boer wagons. We continued shelling the Boer laager throughout the night and in the morning we resumed with Maxims and rifles, principally from the north side.

"On Sunday there was much waste of life in attacking and the same result will be achieved without it. During Monday night, seven Boers made an attempt to break through our lines, but they were captured and their leader was killed. Four were carrying letters. It is believed that there was one other who got through. Other prisoners say that General Cronje marched from Magersfontein here without outspanning, a distance of 33 miles. Had he succeeded in escaping, it would have been one of the finest performances in the annals of war. The Canadians made a gallant charge at the laager, but were driven back with loss. Generel MacDonald and General Knox are slightly wounded."

Washington Post.

Since the Hay-Pauncefote treaty seems to have sunk into a dreamless slumber, from which we should be cruel to arouse it, why not return to the business of constructing the Nicaragua canal? The country, almost to a man, wants one—wants a canal to be paid for by the United States, absolutely controlled by the United States, and operated for the nation's common welfare and defense. The adoption of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty would have made such a canal impossible, but that instrument has been tucked away in a luxurious pigeon-hole and poppies hide its tender form. Why, then, delay the good work longer?

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows; "I was in a most dreadful condition from. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters: and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

For the Babies.

There is no better medicine for the babies than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Its pleasant taste and prompt and effectual cures make it a favorite with mothers and small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds, preventing pneumonia or other serious consequences. It also cures croup and has been used in tens of thousands of cases without a single failure so far as we have been able to learn. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. In cases of whooping cough it liquefies the tough mucous, making it easier to expectorate, and lessens the severity and frequency of the paroxysms of coughing, thus depriving that disease of all dangerous consequences. I was afflicted with a terrible blood disease, which was in spots at first, but afterwards spread all over my body. These soon broke out into sores, and it is easy to imagine the suffering I endured. Before I became convinced that the doctors could do no good, I had spent a hundred dollars, which was really thrown away. I then tried various patent medicines, but they did not reach the disease. When I had finished my first bottle of S. S. S. I was greatly improved and was delighted with the result. The large red splotches on my chest began to grow paler and smaller, and before long disappeared entirely. I regained my lost weight, became stronger, and my appetite greatly improved. I was soon entirely well, and my skin as clear as a piece of glass.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Passing Tribute of a Tear

Charlotte Observer.

Yesterday's despatches announced the death of Dr. Leslie E. Keely—not a great orator, not a great statesman, not one who commanded the attention of listening senates, but, greater than all these, a benefactor of his race. A system of medicine, if it may be so called, released men of a thraldom under which they are bound; it does it, undoubtedly, if they are willing patients; and the death of its originator deserves the passing tribute of a tear.

The milk of human kindness doesn't mix well with the cream of society.

John Dirr, Poseyville, Ind., says: "I never used anything as good as One Minute Cough Cure. We are never without it." Quickly breaks up coughs and colds. Cures all throat and lung troubles. Its use will prevent consumption. Pleasant to take. Howard Gardner.

The height of feminine fashion is often illustrated by some pretty low gowns.

J. I. Bevry Loganton, Pa., writes I am willing to take my oath I that was cured of pneumonia entirely by the use of One Minute Cough Cure entirely after doctors failed. It also cured my children of whooping cough." Quickly relieves and cures coughs, colds, croup, grippe and throat and lung troubles. Children all like it. Mothers endorse it. Howard Gardner.

FAIR COLONIAL DAMES.

The Grace and Dignity of a Bygone Day Revived Last Night.

In honor of the Colonial Tea the home of Mrs. Thos. Bernard, on Ashboro street, was most tastefully decorated with the colonial colors, yellow and white, and the national colors, red, white and blue last night. The evening's entertainment consisted of music, fortune telling and refreshments.

The musical program as published yesterday was rendered by Mrs. C. R. Brown, Mrs. Sharp, Mrs. Wetmore, Miss Fry, Messrs. C. R. Brown and Wesley White, assisted by Mrs. Pride Jones, of Winston.

The recitation by Miss Mary Settle Sharp, a dear little tot of three years, was given with the artless grace of childhood, and soon after, as the chorus was singing "now I lay me," the little miss was sweetly sleeping, nestled in the lap of a colonial dame.

Miss Dixie Lee Bryant added much to the amusement, and incidentally to the revenue, by palmistry fortune and telling of those who wished to know the hidden mysteries of the future.

Refreshments were served to those who felt that 20th century sandwiches blended exceeding well with patriotic homage.

The ladies, true to their lineage, were becomingly attired in colonial costume and would have graced the stately minuet of other days with their presence.

Danville Masons Here Last Night.

Quite a party of gentlemen, who are all Masons, came over last night from Danville, Va., to witness the confirmation of the "third degree" in Greensboro Lodge No. 76 A. F. A. M. They were all the guests of Mr. J. C. Gentry, who after entertaining them at tea came with them to the lodge. The party was composed of Col. J. M. Neal, L. C. West, H. E. L. Pierce, Frank Thomasson and J. T. Carter. They were most cordially welcomed to the lodge, where they found a full attendance, and after witnessing the conferring of the "sublime degree of Master Mason" they took part after the close of the lodge in some side degrees and left on the 11:40 train for home. Col. Neal has one more "grip" than he had when he left Danville, but we hope it will not prove to be his "last."

Big Shipment of Tiling.

The Pomona Terra Cotta Works, situated four miles west of Greensboro, it doing a fine business in its line. The company yesterday shipped six car loads of goods to various points. The company's goods are in great demand, and they readily sell all they can make.

Concert.

The most artistic concert of the year will be given at the academy of music, Monday, March 5th, by the very best local talent, and few will deny that we have some highly gifted musicians in Greensboro.

The desire of the management is that this concert show forth this talent to advantage. The personel of the program will be published next week. The concert is for benefit St. Andrews' church.

"The American Girl which opens an engagement at the Academy of Music, Tuesday, February 30th, is an exceptionally bright comedy drama in four acts, written by H. Gratton Donnelly. Hall enacts the part of Ross Bolter, an American hustler, and gives a highly amusing performance. His imitations of prominent actors make a decided hit. The features of the play, however, is the acting of two winsome little girls. Lillie Lawson and Gracie Hickey. Frankie St. John is also a favorite. The specialties, including songs and dances, are excellent. The piece always meets with popular favor and is deserving of large patronage.

"Order is Heaven's First Law"

Has been often said. Anyone who thinks a Lumber yard is an easy place to keep in shape has never tried it. We now look a little distressed—but give us time and we'll ask you later on to come and see whether we know what we've got and "where we are at." In the meantime, drop in and see us—never mind the confusion.

We have the men and the machinery, and the stuff is rolling in two or three cars a day.
